

2010

- 2010 Mayor's Environmental Achievement Award - Most Sustainable Development, City of Kelowna. The Mayor's Environmental Achievement Awards recognize individuals and groups who have made outstanding or innovative contributions to the protection or management of the environment.
- Five Green Globes awarded to Arts and Sciences Centre.
- Canadian Construction Association's Gold Seal Project Award of Recognition for Engineering Management & Education.

2009

- FortisBC PowerSense Conservation Excellence Award for University Centre with a total estimated savings of 1,125,000 kWh per year.

2008

- FortisBC PowerSense Conservation Excellence Award for Cascade Student Residence and Charles E. Fipke Centre for Innovative Research.
- Socially Sustainable Workplace: UBC Okanagan earned a WorklifeBC from the Ministry of Children and Family Development for its work creating a flexible workplace that supports employees to balance work and life commitments. UBC Okanagan received an Award of Merit for the B.C. Interior, in the category of Large Workplace (more than 250 employees).

2007

- Five Green Globes awarded to Charles E. Fipke Centre for Innovative Research from the Building Owners and Managers Association of Canada, an award reserved for designs serving as national or world leaders in energy and environmental performance.

